Travel Plans

If you apply and are accepted to the RailCamp Program, we will need to know your travel plans. The NRHS staff will do everything to assist you in your efforts to get to either of the RailCamp locations (Nevada Northern or Steamtown). If you are accepted, we will contact you for specific information about your travel plans. Please note. It is your responsibility to arrange your own transportation to and from the RailCamp locations. In the event of an unforeseen schedule change for RailCamp, the National Railway Historical Society will incur no financial liability where you have secured non-refundable transportation.

Tuition Payment

The NRHS has two methods to pay tuition. You can pay the tuition in a lump sum when you make application for RailCamp. You will need a check or money order for $750 (Nevada Northern) or for $850 (Steamtown). If you apply after April 1, 2007, the tuition increases to $850 at NNRM and $950 at Steamtown. You can pay by credit card by telephoning 215-557-6606 between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. eastern time, Monday through Friday. NRHS accepts Visa, MC, Amex, Discover credit cards.

Your second option is to pay in installments. The first installment of $250 is due with the application form. The second installment of $250 is due by May 1, 2009. The final installment for the balance is due by June 1, 2009. The same payment options discussed above apply to installment payments.

If you apply for RailCamp and the National Railway Historical Society offers admission to RailCamp and you subsequently refuse to attend, the deposit is non-refundable. Should the NRHS find it necessary to cancel a RailCamp, any deposits or payments you made will be refunded.

Please make any checks or money order payable to the National Railway Historical Society and note on the memo line RailCamp. Return the application to: RailCamp, National Railway Historical Society, 100 N. 20th St., Fourth Floor, Philadelphia, PA 19103-1462.
